

Army Technicians and Leaders

Are you ready for your next career with one of America's best companies?

Orion is the nation's largest military career placement firm. We find technical careers in a variety of industries and locations for Enlisted Technicians and NCOs leaving the service. Orion will help you make the transition into the civilian workforce by matching your skills and career goals with opportunities within America's finest companies.

Why choose Orion?

All of our recruiters are former military. We understand your unique situation and are the experts on the most effective way to identify your skill set to help you best present yourself for the companies and positions in which you are interested.

You will never be required to work exclusively with Orion. We want you to work with us because we are the best, not because you signed an agreement with us!

Flexibility. We provide several different methods for you to interview, including over 75 hiring conferences annually. We will work with you even if you are geographically restricted.

We put your needs first. We listen to your desires and preferences and look for positions that match your requirements. We will never "push" positions on you.

We offer full access to our candidate Transition Corner. Within our resource center, you will find transition stories and tips from fellow service members, interview preparation advice, helpful articles, civilian living expectations, and much more.

Don't just take our word for it, 98% of our candidates say they would recommend us to their friends and colleagues, and 90% say that Orion's services are better than our competitors!

"Orion surpassed my needs. Orion was with me every step of the way, finding me a career with a great compensation and benefits."

– Ray Dockery Jr., SSG, U.S. Army

"Without having Orion, I do not think the position offered would have happened when it did. Orion helped me get to the "front" of the line instead of having to wait for an H.R. manager to wade through all the other potential employees."

In all honesty, Orion has helped me attain a position that is a dream job."

– Aaron Wanless, SGT, U.S. Army

"Orion does an excellent job helping veterans find careers!"

– Ikechuku Odi, SPC, U.S. Army

Orion has found careers for over 30,000 veterans since 1991, and YOU could be next.

No matter how far out you are from your transition, it is never too early to start planning for your civilian career. Orion has resources for you for every step of the process.
