2003 Soldier Show Comes to Fort Stewart Next Month

Army Entertainment Division (AED) and the Fort Stewart's Directorate of Community Activities and Services present the 2003 Army Soldier Show, 7 p.m., Wednesday, October 15 and Thursday, October 16, at Newman Fitness Center.

This free show is a high-energy MTV-style 90-minute live musical review showcasing the talents of active duty soldiers selected by audition from throughout the Army. They are amateur artists who have a passion for music, dance and performing. They come from infantry, artillery, transportation, military police, medical, intelligence, armor, aviation, signal and other tactical units. The show is put together in six weeks and then tours for six months.

DCAS Public Affairs Specialist, Nancy Gould, will meet media interested in covering the event at the Fort Stewart Media Center at 6:20 p.m. on Wednesday, October 15, and escort them to Newman Fitness Center for photos and possibly interviews with performers before the show.

Video and photos, as well as flash photography, are allowed during all portions of the show. Media representatives should coordinate with DCAS prior to the event.

For more information, or to submit names of those covering the show, call Nancy Gould by Tuesday, October 14 at 912-767-3695.
